

OUR INCOMING YOUTH EXCHANGE STUDENT
for 2010 to 2011

I am happy to introduce you to Ms. Nichapat Tintukasiri, more commonly known as Fah.

PERSONAL INFORMATION

This 16 year old female, is coming to Calgary West Rotary from Muang Nakhon Ratchasima in the Nakhon Ratchasima province.

Fah is a past participant of the RYLA Camp, which has helped her to develop stronger leadership skills.

She describes herself as being self-confident and adaptable. She tries to always smile and think positive about any situation. She is strong at being friendly, understanding, and compassionate.

She has no dietary restrictions, does not smoke, drink and has never been involved with illegal drugs.

FAMILY

Fah lives with her family of four. Her father is a Rotarian of the Suranaree Club, he practices civil and criminal law. Her mother is an accountant and she has a younger brother who is twelve.

Her family places value on their practice of Buddhism.

ACADEMICS

Fah is currently studying grade 10 in a provincial girl's school. On a typical school day, Fah starts classes at 7:50 and finishes at 4:20pm, and then she goes to an addition study class until 7:00 pm. Within her school Fah is also part of the To Be Number One Club, a group which advocates to youth against the use of narcotics. She has also a cheer leader. Her teachers comment that she is a hard working, highly responsible, has good humor and enjoys doing many activities with her friends. Fah has studied English for 10 yrs.

FREE TIME

Fah is very involved in Thai Dancing, which she practices 3 -4 times/wk. She also likes to swim and train for cheer leading. To relax she enjoys watching TV, listening to music or surfing the internet.

FUTURE GOALS FOR HER EXCHANGE AND BEYOND

Exchange: To gain new perspectives, experiences and friends. Show others Thai dancing and culture. Return as more responsible and better able to solve problems independently.

Beyond: To enter into a good university and study political diplomacy science to one day be a diplomat.

We are looking for host families who would be interested in hosting Fah in your home for approx 2.5 months. If you are interested please contact Amy Weatherall at 403.464.0876 or e-mail aschalin@bowvalleycollege.ca.
